For any staffing company, working with a VMS requirement is challenging as it needs more pace that a VMS system demands. It requires a good team of recruiters to quickly understand open requirements, speed up the recruiting process, maintain proactive candidate pools, and to quickly qualify submissions based on the VMS criteria.

Here at Pragna, we have the experienced team who understand the fast paced VMS environment and can submit potential candidates within a few hours of receiving the job orders. We have a good track record of supporting many customers with VMS support services and understand the nuances of working with such a system. Our recruiters are equipped with detailed knowledge, training and tools needed to excel in this fast paced environment.

Key Benefits:

- Swift submissions
- Experienced in VMS systems like fieldglass and so on
- Regular client updates
